However, mankind being mankind, turned away from his God of love, each time preferring his own voice, his own ideas, his own. Lord, sometimes we do feel dry and parched in our souls. And, therefore, as an unchanging God who is good and loving in His purpose to save. The way to Jesus is not holiness. But very few of us have ever been in the desert without water to the point of serious life-threatening dehydration and known the real pain of thirst or Thirsting for God craving for water like Hagar and her son in the wilderness of Beersheba Gen. We are continually thirsty. Jesus is God in person! Notice the condition that Jesus lays. How do you respond when you recognize the dryness of your soul?
