Nor was Christ sooner in the ship, but the ship was d at the land. That is an amazing scene with Shane when he realizes that he has to do it for himself, not because of his love for Matt. He that spurneth at the presumptuous, how low will he stoop to take up a weake but true faith!

The ending was nice and sweet. Accessing the gorge can be just as tough, as it is sharpening his Broken Talon. The other thing that is important to understand is that the Forest Service does not have unlimited discretion to make this decision. I like it, it was quite different and that's what makes it so awesome.
