Paris: Odile Jacob. They focus on various aspects of meta-literary and meta-medial reflection in Despentes' work; on her observations on new media, the changes they induce in social life and the construction of human subjectivity, but also in the realm of literature; on her parody of the contemporary literary business and the cultural market in general; on her representation of diverse 'troubles of authority' in the age of Amazon and Wikipedia; but also, in a larger sense, on the sociocultural functions of narrative, on the delicate question of an ethics of fiction, on the ambivalence of writing between subversion and symbolic violence; and, finally, on the deconstructive meta-poetics of terror displayed in Despentes' 'apocalyptic' novel. Her second novel, Jusquedansnosbras, was published in and translated in English. Getting through a Ph. Critique of Cynical Reason. Julia has inherited her grandmother's gift of seeing the future.
