This research is thought-provoking. You obviously live near an amish community that is unfriendly to have the opinion that they give the cold shoulder. ThankyouErikforrunningthis! I wish I had your writing style. Fundamentalists often assert the primacy of their own idiosyncratic interpretation of religious texts over centuries of acquired knowledge and practice. Plato apparently thought that art was more dangerous than food or sex.

HisacclaimeddirectorialdebutinKothanodiwasacollectionofgrimtales. I would argue the converse: those who believe that the physical world somehow came into being by itself are entirely illogical.
