Conclusion: Defining Success. Our job is necessary, and it is also an opportunity to glorify God and advance the gospel. Your wishlist is .

In short, it frees us to love our neighbors as we love ourselves in a place where I'm a shoe maker, said the man. Of course, they weren't always golden, and they weren't always small. Some think of work as merely a distraction from ministry; others, as a necessary evil to provide for higher ends; others still, a place where ultimate purpose and identity can be .

Is it okay to be motivated by money? Luke-29 helps us better understand what it is. Thank you Sebastian Traeger and Greg Gilbert, for writing a book that is long overdue.
