I am not a skeptic but still find it hard to believe few of the incidents Sri M has described to have happened. As the author moves towards the end, he explains situations he goes through and at some point the book loses its impact on the reader given to the current day beliefs and today's society we live in. Not to pass off anything he has written as hypothetical Warning: Spoilers inside Never thought I would read a book like this one.

At present he lives in Madanapalle, Andhra Pradesh, just three hours from Bangalore. I also read all 3 books mentioned by you...
